

Tricked out for Treats

PET-TACULAR!

Calling all shelters and rescues!

At Trupanion, we're dedicated to helping pets lead healthier, happier lives — a pursuit we proudly share with you, the heroic shelter and rescue professionals who provide unconditional love, kindness, and care to the pets that need it most.

That's why we're excited to use our seasonal pet costume contest to spotlight pets looking for their forever homes and highlight the incredible organizations that support them.

Secure your spot

Visit tinyurl.com/tricked-out to verify your shelter or rescue's details. This will simplify your team's entries when submissions open on October 1.

Prep your pets

Get your pets and their costumes ready! Submit your available pets to the Adorably Adoptable category as soon as submissions open.

Spread the word

The more you share and promote this initiative, the more visibility your pets will receive! Connect with adopters, foster families, and your community to help spread the word.
